FOREWORD

As we journey through life, certain happy moments become a permanent part of the memory. In the pages of this 1957 Warrior, we have attempted to recapture a few of those unforgettable moments.

For each of us a different profile emerges, a different imprint of the past remains. May the turning of these pages provide each student with a lasting record of the impressions and events which made his years at GCHS truly happy ones.

Thirty-three Warriors earned awards in varsity football with a record of three wins, one tie and five losses which was a one-game improvement over the 1955 season.

The football squad was still inexperienced with five first-year seniors being used at various times in the starting lineup. The team was exceptionally light with the line averaging 157 pounds and the backfield, 169.

Unforgettable plays by this year's team were the 85-yard touchdown run of Harry Basan against East St. Louis and the interception by the Alton team of a lateral pass which was turned into an 80-yard touchdown against Granite City Warriors. During the season Sheridan Dutchik earned the honor of being named one of the outstanding ends of the year.

Boys who played regularly were Jim Meng, Gene Davis, Gary Crane, Jim Bledsoe, Norman Grote, Jerry Wilson, Eddie Jackson, and Jim O'Master.

The coaches assisting Keith Parker were Al Lewis, Joseph Fedora, Jack Richardson, Richard Yates, William Schmitt, and Glenn Rice.

Bledsoe "bommer"

The 1956-57 Warrior Wrestlers, under the direction of Coach William Schmitt and Assistant Coach Joe Fedora, were again tops in the Southwestern Illinois and Metropolitan St. Louis area.

Tackling their toughest schedule in Warrior history, they met Normandy, Ritenour, champions of Missouri, Quincy, Roxana, Highland, Jacksonville, Woodriver, Belleville, Lanphier of Sprinfield, Waukegan, and Evanston; and for the ninth straight year were hosts to the sectional wrestling tournament. The state tournament was held this year at the University of Illinois.

Five veterans closed their high school careers: Don Mega, Jim Bledsoe, Gene Davis, Bill Harris and Larry Maxfield. Records by Jim Bledsoe and Don Mega earned them a place among the all-time warrior greats.

BASEBALL

The Warrior Baseball nine enjoyed another successful season on the diamond posting nineteen victories, one tie and six losses. The season began with the unhappy prospects of only three regulars returning from last year's champion team; however, hard work and determination by the players forged a nine that rated with the best in Illinois prep circles.

Seniors Bill Diak, Ron Parker, Dallan Maxvill, John Boyer, and Iran Cohen were inspirational leaders for the team and led the nine in defense and offense. Bill Diak and Ron Parker were co-captains while Dallan Maxvill was chosen the most valuable player. Driving in twenty-one runs, Bill Diak was the best clutch hitter; and Ron Parker closed his high school pitching career winning six games, including a no-hitter.

After being transferred from catcher to pitcher and turning in a record of six wins without a loss, sophomore Richard Wade was chosen the most improved player on the 1956 soual.

CHEERLEADERS

"Go, you Granite Warriors, go" was the familiar cheer heard from the Cheerleaders as they encouraged good sportsmanship and pep at the football and basketball games. Their pep and vitality is a great asset to the morale of the teams as well as the enthusiasm aroused in the student body and other fans.

Marking the end of the football season was the Mr. Touchdown Dance, honoring the entire squad.

Miss Lee Gaines sponsored the cheerleaders.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Stroll is a national organization for those who have achieved recognition in journalistic work. The requirements for membership are a scholastic average of B and 75 inches of material submitted for publication.

At a banquet in the fall and a tea in the spring members are initiated into Quill and Scroll.

MASQUE AND GAVEL

"Speech for use"—the motto of the Granite High students who have been chosen as members of the honor organization, Masque and Gavel. To qualify for membership a student must be a top junior and have had two semesters of advanced speech.

Being an active group, the gavelers plan Homecoming with the aid of their sponsors, Miss Blackburn and Miss Luther, and write and direct the class skits. Also the group gives a variety show, holds bake sales and sells candy in order to raise funds for the annual pilgrimage.

One of the hard working service groups at Granite High is the Junior Red Cross Council, whose main project this year was collecting money for Hungarian relief. Council members also sent joke books and party packs to Scott Air Force Base Hospital and at Christmas distributed gifts to children at a nearby orphanage.

Last year the Granite City chapter's representatives to the Junior Red Cross training center at Druce Lake were Larry Long and Arlene Koenig. Here they gained experience in being good and helpful members of a community. Through service, all council members are striving to become an integral part of the community and to help others.

The sponsor of the group is Miss Edna Garlich.

Parade of olympic flags

Homecoming, our most festive occasion, was celebrated with many activities at Granite High. The theme this year was centered around the International Olympies. At Monday's assembly the guest speaker was Bob Ingham, a sports newscaster. On Tuesday the classes presented skits honoring the coaching staff of our athletic department. One of the best parades of the year moved through Granite City streets Wednesday evening and ended at the football field with a pep rally. Thursday evening's activity was a football game, the outcome of which was a Warrior victory in the contest between our squad and the Belleville Maroons. A dance was held after the game celebrating the victory.

Immediately after the presentation of the play, Time Out For Ginger, on Friday evening, the climax of the week's activities was reached by the crowning of Betty Hoffman as the 1956 Harvest Oueen.
